Dear Mr. Secretary:

Due to your intercession and the kind offices of Miss Foley, I was able to have an interview last Friday with Admiral Hillenkoetter, which lasted for a half hour.

I was delighted to have the opportunity of presenting this project to him. Thank you for making it possible.

Very respectfully,

/s/ Bernard M. Baruch, Jr.

Memo for Record: Above forwarded under date of 5 May 1947 to Admiral Hillenkoetter with the note, "Is there anything in Baruch's idea? J.F." Original letter and note returned to Mr. Forrestal under date of 6 May 46.

Mr. Bernard M. Baruch, Jr.

Dear Mr. Baruch:

Following our conversation, I saw [redacted] who gave me the following information on your proposal. The Navy Department has approved it, as has the War Department, and the Army Air Forces. It has been approved practically in toto, and the three services are now working together to issue the communication instructions as a joint directive. From all indications the actual process of that should not take too long. They are also going to submit these joint

Consequently, the meat in your plan is on the verge of being put into effect, and I should like to offer you my gratitude for your interest in pushing this matter.

Very truly yours,
